

UNIVERSITY OF HELSINKI

Swedish School of Social Science
University of Helsinki

Seminar on Foster Care and Attachment Psychological Support to Foster Families

November 10, 2009, 9-15, Swedish School of Social Science, Snellmaninkatu 12

Ph.D., Professor

Robert Lee

From Depth to Psychoeducation: The Devolution in U.S. Foster Care.

Ph.D., Child Psychiatrist, Therapist

Jari Sinkkonen

Children in foster care - how to get an internal permission to become attached to foster parents?

Ph.D., Professor

Airi Hautamäki

Transmission of attachment across three generations - ghosts and angels in the Finnish nursery.

Ph.D., Docent, General Secretary of the Mannerheim Child Protection Union

Mirjam Kalland

The ideals and the reality in foster care – risk and protective factors.

Robert Lee is acting as a discussant for the seminar.

Fee: 50 €

Apply to ulf.ahrenberg@helsinki.fi by October 31th.

Mobile: +358 50 588 1041

Avgift: 50 €

Anmälningar till ulf.ahrenberg@helsinki.fi senast den 31 oktober.

Mobil: +358 50 588 1041

Professor Robert E. Lee is visiting the Swedish School of Social Science, University of Helsinki. Robert E. Lee is Professor of Marriage and Family Therapy at Florida State University, College of Human Sciences, Department of Family and Child Sciences. He is the writer (together with J.B. Whiting) of the Foster Care Therapist Handbook. Relational Approaches to the Children and Their Families.