

Salla Tuori, University of Helsinki

Multicultural Project Work: Possibilities and Limits

Wednesday, 29th February, 16:15 - 18:00
Swedish School of Social Science, room 210
Snellmaninkatu 12 (entrance from Yrjö-Koskisen katu)

Salla Tuori is a post-doctoral researcher at the University of Helsinki. She is currently working as a researcher within the project “Transnational and local. The Social Integration of Immigrant Communities” funded by the Academy of Finland (led by Östen Wahlbeck). Her current research concerns projectification of multicultural work. Her research areas are contemporary Finnish multiculturalism, postcolonial perspectives and ethnographical approaches. She has published extensively on these subjects.

WELCOME!

CEREN Centre for Research on Ethnic Relations and Nationalism

Professor Peter A. Kraus
Research Administrator Hanna-Maria Bärlund
Planning Officer Anna Storgårds
Phone +358 9 191 28470
Fax +358 9 191 28485

Postal address P.O. Box 16
FIN-00014 University of Helsinki
Visiting address Snellmaninkatu 12
Swedish School of Social Science
sockom.helsinki.fi/ceren
Website sskh-ceren-admin@helsinki.fi
Email