

HELSINGIN YLIOPISTO
HELSINGFORS UNIVERSITET
UNIVERSITY OF HELSINKI

Professor Peter Kivisto

Augustana College, Rock Island, Illinois

The Future of Multiculturalism

CEREN Colloquium

Monday 2 March 2009, 3–5 p.m.

Pohjoinen Hesperiankatu 15 A, 6th floor (buzzer “SSKH”)

Welcome!

Peter Kivisto holds the Richard A. Swanson Chair of Social Thought at Augustana College, Illinois, USA. During his 30-year-long career in the field of Sociology, he has published widely on social theory, history of immigration, citizenship and multiculturalism. His latest books include Dual Citizenship in Global Perspective. From Unitary to Multiple Citizenship (co-edited with Thomas Faist) and Intersecting Inequalities. Class, Race, Sex and Sexualities (co-authored with Elisabeth Hartung). Kivisto is currently the immediate past editor of The Sociological Quarterly. He has been nominated the Finland Distinguished Professor at the University of Turku and participates in the project Multiculturalism as a new pathway to incorporation (Academy of Finland, UTU School of History; UTU Department of Sociology).

Centre for Research on Ethnic Relations and Nationalism (CEREN)